ORDER

The plaintiff, a prisoner proceeding pro se, commenced this 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action by filing a complaint on May 18, 2000. On July 6, 2000, the plaintiff filed a supplemental complaint. The plaintiff claims that the defendants required him to share a cell with inmates who smoke and that the smoke aggravates his asthma.

The parties consented to proceed before a magistrate judge, and on July 14, 2000, this case was reassigned to the undersigned magistrate judge.

On July 31, 2000, the defendants filed an answer to the complaint and supplemental complaint.

On November 14, 2000, the plaintiff filed a motion to compel discovery and a brief in support of that motion. On November 27, 2000, the defendants filed a brief in opposition to the motion to compel. By an Order dated December 18, 2000, the plaintiff's motion to compel was granted in part and denied in part. The plaintiff's motion was granted with respect to his Requests for the Production of Documents lettered A, B and C, and the defendants were ordered to provide the documents responsive to those requests within ten days. The plaintiff's motion to compel was denied with respect to his Request for the Production of Documents lettered D.

On January 17, 2001, the plaintiff filed a motion for sanctions. On January 25, 2001, the defendants filed a brief in opposition to the motion for sanctions, and on February 14, 2001, the plaintiff filed a reply brief.

The plaintiff contends that he is entitled to sanctions because the defendants did not, within ten days, provide the documents that the court ordered on December 18, 2000 to be provided to the plaintiff. The defendants asserts that their production of the documents to the plaintiff was delayed due to the plaintiff's temporary transfer to another institution. Although the defendants do not explain why they could not have mailed copies of the documents to the plaintiff at the institution to which he was transferred¹, it is clear that the documents were produced to the plaintiff on or shortly after January 17, 2001. Since the documents were provided and there was only a short delay, there is no basis in this case to impose sanctions on the defendants. Accordingly, the plaintiff's motion for sanctions will be denied.

¹We recognize that the defendants were only required to provide the documents for the plaintiff's inspection and were not required to photocopy the documents for the plaintiff. Nevertheless, the plaintiff asserts that he was ultimately provided with photocopies of the documents.

AND NOW, this 21st day of February, 2001, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the plaintiff's motion (doc. 26) for sanctions is DENIED.

J. Andrew Smiser
Magistrate Judge

DATED: February 21, 2001.
